

THE TRINITY CROSS

Whatever religious significance you attach to the “Cross” it is acknowledged to be the universal symbol of suffering.

The Celtic Cross is square shaped and sharp. It has 3 equal arms with a support of greater length – its arms are joined by a circle.

We have adopted for our badge the Celtic Cross. We have rounded all the edges and the circle has become a hole. It is symbolic of the purpose of the “hospice”.

We exist to soften the suffering of those people committed to our care, to smooth the round edges and “to make it comfortable”. The ultimate objective is to take the centre out of suffering, hence the hole.

This cross is presented to members of staff and volunteers who have shown their commitment to the philosophy we embrace and rendered continuous service for a period of one year and five.

This cross cannot be bought – it is therefore, priceless when earned

Guidelines For Fundraising Volunteers

Trinity is most privileged and extremely grateful to have the help and support of over 600 volunteers. We value their contribution and their duties can be tailored to their skills/abilities. As an organisation we are open to doing things differently.

Fundraising Volunteer Duties

The volunteers in Fundraising have specific roles for administration procedures. These include such duties as:

- Press cuttings to record media coverage of the hospice
- In memoriam procedures
- Database work
- Ad hoc administration duties

Trinity uses a relationship fundraising model and therefore all volunteers must ensure all donors are appreciated and recognized for their fundraising efforts.

Please contact the Fundraising and Finance on 359362 if you are unable cover your shift.

SOCIAL EVENTS AND INFORMATION

- There is an annual Appreciation Evening for all volunteers at the Hospice. This is a 'thank-you' for the help and support you give to the Hospice. Please check Volunteer notice boards for dates.

Various other social events are organised throughout the year, including a Christmas party night and we encourage volunteers to let us have any suggestions, this can be done by email or in person.
